More info:

The Golden Company is a paramilitary organization formed with the express duty to create, defend and maintain a bustling city-state that will be a bastion for traders and a bulwark against those who wish to tarnish the Heartlands. The members of the Golden Company are renowned for their adherence to the Sigma Standard, an ideology that believes independence and self sufficiency are critical to master before one can effectively participate in a team. They will be renowned as much for their prowess on the field of battle as for their statecraft and trade. We are an invitation only organization and access will be limited to approximately 100 individuals. Bearing the gold black armor of the Golden Company will command honor and respect of those who lay eyes on it.
